12th Annual Authors Celebration

Monday, February 16, 2026

12pm Authors Celebration: Betty Chinn Showcase
Authors Hall, Library 2nd floor

As a child during the Chinese Cultural Revolution, she was separated from her family, imprisoned, and ruthlessly tortured. As an immigrant to the United States, she worked tirelessly to shelter and feed thousands in her community. How she survived monstrous conditions, challenged impossible odds, and became a beacon of hope for those most vulnerable has now been newly documented in the second edition of The Gray Bird Sings: The Extraordinary Life of Betty Kwan Chinn. Come meet Betty Kwan Chinn. Co-sponsored by the Library and the Office of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion

3pm Authors Celebration: Jerry Rohde
Authors Hall, Library 2nd floor

Author Jerry Rohde and drone videographer Erin Scofield believe that videos are the future for local history. They will show how text and videos will be combined in their forthcoming book, Northern Humboldt Hinterlands, to be published by The Press at Cal Poly Humboldt. Come see local history in an all new way and how you can do it, too.
