

Cal Poly Humboldt Department of History presents:

Mary Lindemann

Decades of War, Decades of Death: War and Pestilence in Seventeenth-Century Europe.

Keynote Address of the 2022 History Conference

5:00PM, Friday, 22 April. Founders Hall, Room 163.

Address questions to marschke@humboldt.edu

Mary Lindemann is Professor of History at the University of Miami. She has been President of the German Studies Association and the President of the American Historical Association.

Lindemann has written extensively on early modern German and medical history. Her most recent books include: Liaisons dangereuses: Sex, Law, and Diplomacy in the Age of Frederick the Great (2006), Medicine and Society in Early Modern Europe (2nd ed., 2009), and The Merchant Republics: Amsterdam, Antwerp, and Hamburg, 1648-1790 (2015). She is currently writing a book on the wars of the mid to late seventeenth century and especially their aftermath in Brandenburg.

Saturday, 23 April

Session 1, 9:30AM-10:20AM

Founders Hall 235. Moderator: Benjamin Marschke

Noah Daglio, “The Influence of Anti-Semitism in the United States before World War II.”

James George, “The Stillborn State: Vichy France and the Failure of the Révolution nationale.”

Founders Hall 236. Moderator: Thomas Mays.

Natalie Melton, “The Rise and Decline of Arcata’s Timber Industry and Growth of Related Infrastructures.”

Daniel O’Hern, “Past, Present, and Future: Humboldt County’s Company Timber Towns.”

Break, 10:20-10:30AM

Session 2, 10:30AM-11:20AM

Founders Hall 235. Moderator: Thomas Mays.

Jake T. Hargis, “The Men in Normandy: The Influence D-Day Had on Allied Soldiers.”

Alan Hill, “Steel Pride: An Analysis on How the Quality of a Tank Effected the Morale of a World War II Tank Commander.”

Founders Hall 236. Moderator: Robert Cliver.

Sarah J. Phelps, “Freedom of Movement: The Development and Disappearance of the Corset in Succession with Women's Agency, 1860-1920.”

David Ovando Serrano, “Progression of Rights of Women Workers in Factories in Japan (1869-1940).”

Break, 11:20-11:30AM

Session 3, 11:30AM-12:20PM

Founders Hall 235. Moderator: Mary Lindemann.

Collin Rocha, "Washing Their Hands of Oppression: The Politicization of Sports and Sportswashing in the Modern Era."

Alfred Silva, "Social Rock 'n' Societal Roll: How the Youth and Rock'n'Roll Helped Promote Change in 1950s and 1960s American Society."

Founders Hall 236. Moderator: Ryder Dschida.

Anton Zientek, "The Rise of Polish Settlements in Texas from 1850 to 1950."

Kyle Ackerman, "From Economic Conquest to Intervention: U.S. Mexico Relations and the End of American Isolationism."

Lunch, 12:20-1:30PM

Session 4, 1:30-2:50PM

Founders Hall 235. Moderator: Suzanne Pasztor.

Gleb Perch, "Radical Political Philosophy in Early Nineteenth-Century America."

Jeffrey Maiten, "Mental Illness Among Great Composers."

Founders Hall 236. Moderator: Robert Cliver.

Mara Johnson, "From The First Republic to the Velvet Divorce: Why Czechoslovakia was United and Divided Within a Century."

Nicholas Chambers, "The Paiute, Water Wars, and a Covered-Up Agricultural Revolution in the Owens Valley from the Nineteenth Century to Today."

Jessica Stahl: "A Fatal Mistake: How the Governments in Spain, the United States, and Japan Failed to Stop the Deadly Spread of the 1918 H1N1 Influenza Pandemic."