

College of Professional Studies Librarian Candidates

Amanda Dinscore
May 27, 2022

Amanda Dinscore (she/her) is an associate librarian at California State University, Fresno with over 15 years of experience in academic libraries. She holds an MS in Library and Information Science from San Jose State and an MS in Instructional Science & Technology from CSU Monterey Bay. Amanda's work in libraries is informed by her interests in inclusive pedagogy, online teaching and learning, user-centered service, and helping students overcome barriers to their educational goals. Amanda has extensive experience serving students and faculty from diverse backgrounds and feels fortunate to work in a field that provides endless opportunities for connection and lifelong learning.

Open-forum Presentation:
10:00am -10:50am, Library Room 121
Open to Campus

Philosophy of Librarian Presentation
2:00pm -2:50pm, Library Fishbowl
Open to Library Staff and Faculty

Provide feedback on Amanda Dinscore at:
<https://hsu.link/CPSLib-Dinscore>

Naomi Hill
May 31, 2022

Naomi G. Hill (she/her/hers) is a Teaching and Learning Librarian at Cal Poly Humboldt on the unceded land of the Wiyot people. She earned a Master of Library and Information Science from San José State University, where her work was selected for publication in the School of Information 2020 Exemplary Student Showcase and the well-known library blog Tame the Web. Prior to her time at Cal Poly Humboldt and as a high school teacher librarian, she worked in finance–consumer, non-profit, and commercial–for 14 years. Her research interests include librarianship as pastoral care, children’s and young adult literature, disability studies, and critical pedagogy.

Open-forum Presentation:
9:00am -9:50am, Library Room 121
Open to Campus

Philosophy of Librarian Presentation
1:00pm -1:50pm, Zoom
Open to Library Staff and Faculty

Provide feedback on Naomi Hill at:
<https://hsu.link/CPSLib-Hill>

Anna Harper
June 3, 2022

Hello, I am Anna Harper, a candidate for your Professional Studies Librarian position. I am nearing a decade of serving as a faculty librarian, most recently at Sacramento State and Napa Valley College. Previously I was appointed to a visiting faculty position at the University of Denver, a research institution in Colorado, where I contributed as liaison to the University College of Continuing and Professional Studies, the schools within the Department of Education, and as the coordinator of library instruction for First Year Writing as well as extracurricular library programming. I am originally from a small agricultural town located on the Point Reyes National Seashore and spent several years living on the Hawaiian Islands. Having lived my life in these unique, multicultural communities I am inspired by the potential of compassionate pluralism to reimagine our society in response to systemic inequities across the spectrums of ethnicity, culture, identity, accessibility, neurodiversity, and economics. Each day I look forward to learning from our students how to build an educational system that responds to what they care about, how they learn, and how we can support the development of their intellectual agency and solidify their power to change the trajectory of their future, the wellbeing of their communities, and the health of our planet.

Open-forum Presentation:
10:00am -10:50am, Library Room 121
Open to Campus

Philosophy of Librarian Presentation
2:00pm -2:50pm, Library Fishbowl
Open to Library Staff and Faculty

Provide feedback on Anna Harper at:
<https://hsu.link/CPSLib-Harper>
