

College of Natural Resources & Sciences Librarian Candidate Bios

Chrissy Hursh
October 2, 2023

Chrissy Hursh (she/her) has over a decade of accumulated experience working in academic libraries, including as an Agriculture & Science Librarian at Chico State. Her degrees include a B.S. from Purdue University, an MPA from Indiana University, and an MLIS from University of Wisconsin, Madison. She prioritizes student success, collaborative partnerships with faculty, and diversity-equity-inclusion-access (DEIA) in her instruction, reference assistance, and collection development. Her research interests include facilitating Open Access/Open Educational Resources, recruitment-hiring-retention of BIPOC library personnel, and copyright literacy. She currently serves as the Evening and Weekend Coordinator at the University of Oregon Law Library in Eugene.

Teaching Demonstration
3:20 pm - 4:20 pm, Library Room 308
Open to Campus

Provide feedback on Chrissy Hursh at:
<https://hum.link/CNRSlibrarian>

Matt Doyle
October 9, 2023

Matt Doyle (he/him) currently serves as Education Librarian and Director of the Teacher Resource Center at Fresno State. His research interests include building student agency and student perceptions of information literacy. When he's not in the library he enjoys surfing, woodworking, restoring furniture, and exploring California with his family.

Teaching Demonstration
9:50 am - 10:50 am, Library Room 308
Open to Campus

Provide feedback on Matt Doyle at:
<https://hum.link/CNRSlibrarian>
