

In honor of Constitution Day*, the Cal Poly Humboldt History Department invites the campus community to a panel discussion on:

ORIGINALISM AND TEXTUALISM IN THE CONSTITUTION: ISSUES FROM THE PAST CONFRONTING (CONFOUNDING?) THE PRESENT

Friday, Sept. 15 | 5-7 p.m. | Founders Hall 163

PANELISTS

- PAUL GECK
History Department
- DR. JOICE CHANG
Politics Department

Moderated by RYDER
DSCHIDA, History Department

Free and open to the public. Refreshments will be provided.

Questions? Email
histdept@humboldt.edu.

*Constitution Day commemorates the signing of the U.S. Constitution on Sept. 17, 1787.