

Inspire.

Impact.

Center For Teaching & Learning Newsletter

02/21/23

THIS WEEK'S NEWSLETTER

Call for Proposals: Teaching Excellence Symposium
Register: Teaching Excellence Symposium
University Press: Native Authors in Humboldt
Sign Up for Mid-Semester Feedback

Spring 2023

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Annual Teaching Excellence Symposium

Join Us!

Register for the Symposium Here

hear from a panel of educators on how they are imagining their work within a polytechnic

Reimagining Humboldt as a Cal Poly

This year's Symposium celebrates this creativity and commitment

Location:

Library Authors Hall

APRIL 28, 2023

11AM- 2PM

Hosted by the CTL

Submit a Proposal by March 31st

Share your work at the Teaching Excellence Symposium share how you imagine your work within a polytechnic University through highlighting inspiring, innovative, and impactful work around teaching, learning, and related research

TEACHING EXCELLENCE SYMPOSIUM

REIMAGINING HUMBOLDT AS A CAL POLY

Join in the celebration of Humboldt educators' creativity and commitment to reimagining teaching as a polytech. Share your stories on Friday, April 28th.

Register for the Symposium and hear from a panel of educators on how they are imagining their work within a polytechnic; explore engaging print and interactive digital posters, and engage in teaching stories with colleagues.

April 28th • 11:00 am - 2:00 pm • Lunch Provided

ANNUAL TEACHING EXCELLENCE SYMPOSIUM SUBMISSIONS

WHAT IS YOUR STORY?

Submit a proposal for a paper poster, interactive digital poster, or a text narrative by March 31st.

- Paper Posters: Open poster session highlighting inspiring, innovative, and/or impactful work around teaching, learning, and related research
- Interactive, Digital Posters: Open poster session using clickable links, slideshow mode, videos, etc.
- Text Narrative: Share a story of your teaching/students' learning in text format and it will be posted in the CTL online gallery and also via a QR code in the Symposium handout. (See last year's text narrative example for ideas).

UNIVERSITY PRESS

HIGHLIGHTING NATIVE AUTHORS IN HUMBOLDT

The Press at Cal Poly Humboldt has proudly supported 600+ authors on the Humboldt Digital Commons platform — which publishes and promotes research and creative works.

This year's works showcase native voice's in Humboldt County, magical journeys through the redwoods, multilingual literature, University-led climate research, and North Coast art.

Read Cal Poly Humboldt's published stories here

DON'T FORGET TO REQUEST YOUR MID-SEMESTER FEEDBACK

NON-EVALUATIVE FEEDBACK FROM YOUR STUDENTS

Mid-Semester Feedback is a discovery process that solicits feedback from students on important aspects within a course. The goal is to identify any possible changes that may have a positive impact on students' learning experiences.

Find out more and submit a request for
Mid-Semester Feedback on the
CTL website

Cal Poly Humboldt.

Contact the CTL
ctl@humboldt.edu · <http://ctl.humboldt.edu>

