

JOIN THE LUMBERJACK CHALLENGE!

What is it?

Professional development tracks centered around gaining a better understanding of basic emergency management principles. These trainings are all certified by FEMA and highly sought after by all employers in today's climate. All it takes is some time and a computer! The basic tier is the Green Tier. Once you have completed the Green Tier, feel free to move on to completing the Gold level! Once you have completed both tiers you will receive the Lumberjack Challenge Award!

How Do I Get Started?

First log onto

<https://training.humboldt.edu/content/fema-and-covid-lumberjack-challenge>

There you will see the entire list of FEMA course links. Click on the link to the courses you are working on. Once you have completed the class it will ask you to take the final quiz. You must complete this quiz to receive credit. It will also ask you for your Student Identification Number. At this time you can follow the prompts to register for this number. WRITE IT DOWN! You will need this number for all future classes. This is also how you will be able to retrieve your transcript. After every completed class you will receive your certificate of completion via email. SAVE THESE. Once you have completed one of the Tiers email all of your certificates to EOC@humboldt.edu to receive credit!

GREEN TIER:

Independent Study Courses:

100, 200, 201, 242, 520, 700, 800 and 907

Psychological First Aid

GOLD TIER:

Any 6 of the Following Independent Study Courses:

5, 10, 15, 20, 26, 235, 240, 241, 244, 326, 363, 368, 2200

With 68 Additional Hours of In Person Approved Training. For more information on these classes contact EOC@humboldt.edu. See the Class descriptions for more infor-

LOOK FOR THE COVID CHALLENGE!

Complete the GREEN TIER and then move onto the COVID CHALLENGE! Look at class description for details